Terms of Auction

- 1) Protected price may be lowered at any time by seller. Protected price cannot be raised after auction company has received a listing agreement.
- 2) If said vehicle is sold within 14 days after the sale to any person as a direct result of the auction, advertising or promotions, then I shall agree to pay the commission on the stated reserve price.
- 3) Seller warrants that he/she is sole and only owner and has the right to sell vehicle and has clear consent from lienholder. Seller agrees to provide buyer with good, clear and transferable title and agrees to correct any title defects and/or pay the cost associated with providing buyer with good, clear and transferable title as required by the state where buyer seeks to register vehicle.
- 4) Seller agrees to consent to the sale of this vehicle subject to the terms and conditions contained herein and in the Purchase Invoice and Bill of Sale. Seller authorizes Highway 51 Auction to release said vehicle to the successful buyer upon payment in full to Hwy 51 Auction. In the event that there is a delay in payment for any reason beyond Hwy 51 Auctions' control, seller may be asked to retain property or allow Hwy 51 Auction to arrange proper storage of said vehicle to be paid by bidder/purchaser, until payment has been received in full from bidder/purchaser. Upon payment being received in full by Hwy 51 Auction, seller agrees to transfer ownership to buyer and make arrangements to meet with Hwy 51 Auction and/or purchaser to deliver said sold vehicle and title. Proceeds from the sale may be withheld at Hwy 51's discretion to satisfy any existing debt or obligation owed to Hwy 51 Auction by the seller. Payment checks for Sold vehicles shall be made available to seller 7-10 days after the sale. In some rare cases (such as unforeseen title issues etc.) payment may be delayed for additional days or until issues are resolved.
- 5) Seller acknowledges that it is impossible to predict with certainty the sale times and or process which will be received for auction items. Accordingly, no such representations is made. Hwy 51 Auction reserves the right to reject a vehicle not suitable for the auction or with an unreasonable reserve. Seller understands that entry fees are not refundable. Title may be held by Hwy 51 Auction until any and all funds do clear Hwy 51 Auction's bank or until cash is received.
- 6) Hwy 51 Auction shall do our best to protect your consigned items, but we shall not be held responsible or liable in any way for any damages or loss due to transport, movement or display, including theft, vandalism, water damage or fire. Buyer's and seller's should maintain their own property insurance at all times. Unsold vehicles must be removed from auction property immediately after auction.
- 7) This document contains entire agreement of the parties and shall be binding on them and respective heirs, personal representatives and assigns. It shall not be modified, except in writing, signed by Hwy 51 Auction or at the auction block. This agreement shall be interpreted according to laws in Oklahoma.
- 8) The parties agree that any action to which Highway 51 Auction is a party, the laws of the state of Oklahoma shall be used to interpret and enforce this contract. The parties agree that in any action to which Hwy 51 Auction is a party, the proper venue and jurisdiction for any dispute herein shall be either in the Superior court of Payne County, Oklahoma or the district court located in Stillwater, Oklahoma. Purchaser agrees the address which is listed on this contract is the proper address to be used for any service of process.

This document is complete and shall be binding upon the parties and heirs. By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read, understand and agree to the above terms and conditions of this contract.
